Free Spanish Level Check

Find out where you or your child are with Spanish today, and what to work on next. Suitable for learners aged 11 and over, including GCSE students and adults.

How to use this check

1. Work through Part 1 and tick the statements that are true for you.
 2. Answer the 30 questions in Part 2. Circle one answer for each. No dictionary, and no guessing if you really do not know: just leave it blank.
 3. Check your answers with the key on the last page and add up your score.
 4. Use the score table to see your level and the recommended next step.
- Optional: complete the short writing task in Part 3 and email it to May for free, personal feedback.

Part 1 · What can you do in Spanish?

Tick each statement that is true for you today. Be honest: this is just for you.

Getting started	Yes	Not yet
I can introduce myself: name, age, where I live.	☐	☐

My score: _____ / 30

Score	Your level	What it means and the next step
0 to 8	Beginner (around A1)	You are at the start of your Spanish journey. Lessons focus on everyday words, pronunciation and confidence speaking from day one.
9 to 16	Elementary (around A2 · GCSE Foundation)	You have a good base. Next: past and future tenses, longer conversations, and Foundation-level exam practice for GCSE students.
17 to 24	Intermediate (around B1 · GCSE Higher)	You can cope in most everyday situations. Next: accuracy, opinions and the subjunctive, and AQA Higher past papers for grades 6 to 9.
25 to 30	Upper intermediate (B1+ and above)	Strong work. Next: fluency, richer vocabulary and conversation practice, or a head start on A-level style tasks.

Levels are a guide, based on the Common European Framework (A1 to C2) and the GCSE tiers. Your Part 1 ticks help too: if your quiz score and your ticks point to different levels, the free call will settle it.
